Perspectives on (Un-) Employment

3rd Interdisciplinary
Ph.D. Workshop

Aims and Topics

The IAB Graduate School's 3rd interdisciplinary Ph.D. workshop on Perspectives on (Un-) Employment aims at bringing together young researchers from different disciplines. The workshop will provide an opportunity for Ph.D. students to present and discuss their research in a constructive and international atmosphere. A number of experienced researchers will provide feedback and advice. The workshop will focus on but not be limited to empirical research in the following fields:

- Labour market institutions and policies
- Inequality and education
- Regional disparities
- Labour mobility and dynamics
- Qualification and skills

Keynote and invited Speakers

Peter Dolton (University of London)

Heike Solga (Social Science Research Center Berlin (WZB) and Free University Berlin)

Proceedings

The workshop is open to Ph.D. students at any stage of their work. If you are interested in presenting your research, submit an extended abstract (minimum of 2000 words) or a full paper in pdf format to phd-workshop@iab.de. An extended abstract can contain a summary of your Ph.D. project or a chapter of your dissertation thesis. The submission should include your contact information (name, affiliation and email address). Deadline for submission is July 2nd 2010. Notification of acceptance will be given by the end of August 2010.

Date:

November 18–19, 2010
